Our regular Legal Update Seminar will review recent developments in employment and immigration law and auto-enrolment with interactive case studies, and discuss the practical implications for employers – helping you to pick up on the key topics and to make sure that you take the appropriate action. We will cover:

Employment Law Update

- Changes to family friendly leave including parental, adoption and shared parental leave
- Prohibition of enforced subject access
- Changes to the calculation of holiday pay
- Changes to definition of "establishment" for collective redundancy consultation purposes
- Increases to Statutory payments
- Cases of Note
- Forthcoming changes expected in Autumn 2015: New tax-free childcare scheme and draft order to outlaw caste discrimination expected

Immigration Law Update

- General immigration law update
- Key changes to Tier 2
- New medical fee charges

Pensions Update

- General auto-enrolment update
- Pension Freedoms Reform
- Breakdown of workers that need to be auto-enrolled
