Dealing with Difficult Employees

We are regularly contacted by clients seeking advice and guidance as to how to deal with problem or difficult employees. In the minefield that is U.K. Employment Law, to avoid potentially costly tribunal claims, it is essential that employee issues are dealt with fairly, swiftly and effectively.

During this seminar we will use case studies to ensure you understand your legal obligations in the U.K., as well as offer practical solutions.

Common problem areas that we will address are as follows:

- Repeat minor offences (for example, persistent lateness)
- Sickness absence -both short and long term
- Gross misconduct
- Issues surrounding the internet and social media
- Managing conflict
- Employees raising grievances
- Workplace harassment
- Whistleblowing
- Discrimination and issues surrounding diversity
- Protected conversations and Settlement Agreements

Following the main presentation there will be a question and answer session where you will have the opportunity to put any queries to our qualified solicitors and experienced HR professionals.
